

Curriculum Vitae

Rainer MASERA

Expert on the Board of Directors

This CV is based on information provided to the EIB by the person concerned.

Personal information:

- Born on May 6 1944 (Como)
- Married, two children

Professional Experience:

Currently:

- Dean of the Economics Faculty and Professor of Political Economy at the University Guglielmo Marconi, Rome, Italy
- Chief of the Italian Delegation of the Franco-Italian Government Committee for the new Turin-Lyon railway link
- Expert Member of the Board of the European Investment Bank
- Member of the Board of Directors of Merloni Termosanitari S.p.A. and of Colacem S.p.A.
- Vice Chairman of ICC in Italy and Member of the Executive Board of the ICC.

Previous commitments:

- 1971 -1975: Executive officer for the Bank of International Settlements in Basel
- 1975 – 1988: Central director in Bank of Italy (Rome), Member of the Board of the BIS and a Member of G10 Deputies
- 1988 -1998: Managing Director of IMI Istituto Mobiliare Italiano S.p.A. (Rome)
- 1998 -2001: Chief Executive Officer of the Group Sanpaolo IMI (Turin); 2003-2004: Chairman of Banca Fideuram (Rome)
- 2004-2007:
  - Chairman of Rete Ferroviaria Italiana S.p.A.,
  - Strategic International Advisor and Senior Director of Mercer Oliver Wyman, Member of the Board of Unicredit Banca Mobiliare,
  - Chairman of the Advisory Committee of SACE (Rome),
  - 2007-2008: Managing Director and Chairman of Financial Institution Group of Lehman Brothers, Italy (Rome).
- Between 1995 and 1996: served as technical Minister for the Budget and Economic Planning in the Dini Government
- January 1996: appointed Cavaliere di Gran Croce of the Italian Republic by President Scalfaro
- 02/06/2002: appointed Cavaliere del Lavoro by President Ciampi
- 04/06/2003: nominated Officier of the Légion d'Honneur by the President of France Chirac.

Education:

- 1967 : Graduated in Statistics and Demography from the University of Rome

- 1969 : Doctorate in Economics from the University of Oxford (where he did his research work with Nobel prizewinner John Hicks and his thesis on the term structure of interest rates was published by Oxford University Press)
- 2001 : awarded an honorary degree in International and Diplomatic Science by the Political Science Faculty of the University of Turin

Publications:

- M. Masera published several books and articles on financial innovation, risk management and political economy.

Other:

- M. Masera was appointed one of the 5 "wise men" for the review of the "Lamfalussy" process (IIMG) and is now a member of the "De Larosière" Group.