

Curriculum Vitae

Martin Polónyi

Director of the EIB

Personal Information:

- Slovak

Career:

- January 2020 – present
 - Director General of the International Relations Section
Responsible for EU policies, financial instruments and international financial institutions
Ministry of Finance of the Slovak Republic
- 2017 – 2020
 - Director of the Financial Instruments and International Institutions Department
Responsible for Business development and management of relations with International Financial Institutions, the policy of implementation of financial instruments financed from European Structural and Investment Funds, alternative finance and PPPs.
Became the chair of the supervisory board of Slovak Guarantee and Development Fund, and member of the supervisory board of Venture to Future Fund
- 2015 – 2017
 - Director of Department of Financial Strategy for Economic Growth
Responsible for financial instruments and related agenda. The Department was later merged with the Department of International Financial Institutions.
 - Expert in the Department of Financial Strategy for Economic Growth
- 2008-2010 and 2012-2014
 - ECB Coordinator
Coordination of the preparations of the European Central Bank Governing and General Councils meetings
National Bank of Slovakia
- 2010-2012
 - Information Management Specialist
Within DG Secretariat, responsible for functional support, trainings, and further development of enterprise content management system named DARWIN
European Central Bank

Education:

- University of Economics in Bratislava, Slovak Republic
2002 – 2007
Master's Degree, International Relations and Affairs
- Université Jean Moulin (Lyon III)
2004 – 2005
DEUF (Diplôme d'Etudes Universitaires Françaises)

Languages

- Slovak as a mother tongue, English, French