Investment and Investment Finance in Europe

Addendum to Chapter 4:

Composition and evolution of investment finance in the European Union

This document supplements chapter 4 of the European Investment Bank’s 2013 Economics Conference publication on investment and investment finance in Europe. A number of the graphs that appear in chapter 4 were reproduced for 9 countries as to provide the reader with further insight into the topic at hand.

Table of content

1. BELGIUM .............................................................................................................................................. 2
2. BULGARIA ........................................................................................................................................... 7
3. FRANCE .................................................................................................................................................. 12
4. GERMANY ........................................................................................................................................... 17
5. GREECE .............................................................................................................................................. 22
6. IRELAND ........................................................................................................................................... 27
7. ITALY .................................................................................................................................................. 32
8. PORTUGAL .......................................................................................................................................... 37
9. SPAIN ................................................................................................................................................ 42
1. BELGIUM

Figure 3: Domestic savings versus foreign funding (four-quarter cumulated flows in EUR bn)

Source: Own calculations based on Eurostat’s national account statistics

Figure 5: Domestic savings of households, corporations and government (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (European sector account statistics)
Figure 6: Net foreign capital transactions (four-quarter cumulated flows in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (balance of payments statistics)

Figure 8: Gross inward and outward foreign capital transactions (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (balance of payments statistics)
Figure 9: Investments and savings by non-financial corporations (in EUR bn)

Source: Own calculations based on Eurostat’s sector account statistics

Figure 10: Loan, securities and equity transactions of NFCs (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (consolidated sector accounts)
Figure 11: Liability structure of NFCs (outstanding amounts)

Source: Eurostat (national account statistics, consolidated sector accounts)

Figure 12: Debt structure of NFCs (outstanding amounts)

Source: Eurostat (national account statistics, consolidated sector accounts)
Figure 13: Loans from euro area monetary financial institutions to NFCs (in EUR bn)

Source: ECB
2. BULGARIA

Figure 3: Domestic Savings versus foreign funding (four-quarter cumulated flows in EUR bn)

Source: Own calculations based on Eurostat’s national account statistics

Figure 5: Domestic savings of households, corporations and government (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (European sector account statistics)
Figure 6: Net foreign capital transactions (four-quarter cumulated flows in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (balance of payments statistics)

Figure 8: Gross inward and outward foreign capital transactions (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (balance of payments statistics)
Figure 9: Investments and savings by non-financial corporations (in EUR bn)

Source: Own calculations based on Eurostat’s sector account statistics

Figure 10: Loan, securities and equity transactions of NFCs (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (consolidated sector accounts)
Figure 11: Liability structure of NFCs (outstanding amounts)

Source: Eurostat (national account statistics, consolidated sector accounts)

Figure 12: Debt structure of NFCs (outstanding amounts in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (national account statistics, consolidated sector accounts)
Figure 13: Loans from euro area monetary financial institutions to NFCs (in EUR bn)

Source: ECB
3. FRANCE

Figure 3: Domestic Savings versus foreign funding (four-quarter cumulated flows in EUR bn)

Source: Own calculations based on Eurostat’s national account statistics

Figure 5: Domestic savings of households, corporations and government (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (European sector account statistics)
Figure 6: Net foreign capital transactions (four-quarter cumulated flows in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (balance of payments statistics)

Figure 8: Gross inward and outward foreign capital transactions (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (balance of payments statistics)
Figure 9: Investments and savings by non-financial corporations (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (balance of payments statistics)

Figure 10: Loan, securities and equity transactions of NFCs (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (consolidated sector accounts)
Figure 11: Liability structure of NFCs (outstanding amount)

Source: Eurostat (national account statistics, consolidated sector accounts)

Figure 12: Debt structure of NFCs (outstanding amounts in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (national account statistics, consolidated sector accounts)
Figure 13: Loans from euro area monetary financial institutions to NFCs (in EUR bn)

Source: ECB
4. GERMANY

Figure 3: Domestic Savings versus foreign funding (four-quarter cumulated flows in EUR bn)

!Chart showing Domestic Savings versus foreign funding

Source: Own calculations based on Eurostat’s national account statistics

Figure 5: Domestic savings of households, corporations and government (in EUR bn)

!Chart showing Domestic savings of households, corporations and government

Source: Eurostat (European sector account statistics)
Figure 6: Net foreign capital transactions (four-quarter cumulated flows in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (balance of payments statistics)

Figure 8: Gross inward and outward foreign capital transactions (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (balance of payments statistics)
Figure 9: Investments and savings by non-financial corporations (in EUR bn)

Source: Own calculations based on Eurostat’s sector account statistics

Figure 10: Loan, securities and equity transactions of NFCs (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (consolidated sector accounts)
Figure 11: Liability structure of NFCs (outstanding amounts)

Source: Eurostat (national account statistics, consolidated sector accounts)

Figure 12: Debt structure of NFCs (outstanding amounts in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (national account statistics, consolidated sector accounts)
Figure 13: Loans from euro area monetary financial institutions to NFCs (in EUR bn)

Source: ECB
5. GREECE

Figure 3: Domestic Savings versus foreign funding (four-quarter cumulated flows in EUR bn)

Source: Own calculations based on Eurostat’s national account statistics

Figure 5: Domestic savings of households, corporations and government (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (European sector account statistics)
Figure 6: Net foreign capital transactions (four-quarter cumulated flows in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (balance of payments statistics)

Figure 8: Gross inward and outward foreign capital transactions (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (balance of payments statistics)
Figure 9: Investments and savings by non-financial corporations (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (balance of payments statistics)

Figure 10: Loan, securities and equity transactions of NFCs (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (consolidated sector accounts)
Figure 11: Liability structure of NFCs (outstanding amounts)

Source: Eurostat (national account statistics, consolidated sector accounts)

Figure 12: Debt structure of NFCs (outstanding amounts in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (national account statistics, consolidated sector accounts)
Figure 13: Loans from euro area monetary financial institutions to NFCs (in EUR bn)

Source: ECB
6. IRELAND

Figure 3: Domestic Savings versus foreign funding (four-quarter cumulated flows in EUR bn)

Source: Own calculations based on Eurostat’s national account statistics

Figure 5: Domestic savings of households, corporations and government (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (European sector account statistics)
Figure 6: Net foreign capital transactions (four-quarter cumulated flows in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (balance of payments statistics)

Figure 8: Gross inward and outward foreign capital transactions (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (balance of payments statistics)
Figure 9: Investments and savings by non-financial corporations (in EUR bn)

Source: Own calculations based on Eurostat’s sector account statistics

Figure 10: Loan, securities and equity transactions of NFCs (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (consolidated sector accounts)
Figure 11: Liability structure of NFCs (outstanding amounts)

Source: Eurostat (national account statistics, consolidated sector accounts)

Figure 12: Debt structure of NFCs (outstanding amounts in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (national account statistics, consolidated sector accounts)
Figure 13: Loans from euro area monetary financial institutions to NFCs (in EUR bn)

Source: ECB
7. ITALY

Figure 3: Domestic Savings versus foreign funding (four-quarter cumulated flows in EUR bn)

Source: Own calculations based on Eurostat’s national account statistics

Figure 5: Domestic savings of households, corporations and government (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (European sector account statistics)
Figure 6: Net foreign capital transactions (four-quarter cumulated flows in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (balance of payments statistics)

Figure 8: Gross inward and outward foreign capital transactions (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (balance of payments statistics)
Figure 9: Investments and savings by non-financial corporations (in EUR bn)

Source: Own calculations based on Eurostat’s sector account statistics

Figure 10: Loan, securities and equity transactions of NFCs (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (consolidated sector accounts)
Figure 11: Liability structure of NFCs (outstanding amounts)

Source: Eurostat (national account statistics, consolidated sector accounts)

Figure 12: Debt structure of NFCs (outstanding amounts in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (national account statistics, consolidated sector accounts)
Figure 13: Loans from euro area monetary financial institutions to NFCs (in EUR bn)

Source: ECB
8. PORTUGAL

Figure 3: Domestic Savings versus foreign funding (four-quarter cumulated flows in EUR bn)

Source: Own calculations based on Eurostat’s national account statistics

Figure 5: Domestic savings of households, corporations and government (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (European sector account statistics)
Figure 6: Net foreign capital transactions (four-quarter cumulated flows in EUR bn)

Figure 8: Gross inward and outward foreign capital transactions (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (balance of payments statistics)
Figure 9: Investments and savings by non-financial corporations (in EUR bn)

Source: Own calculations based on Eurostat’s sector account statistics

Figure 10: Loan, securities and equity transactions of NFCs (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (consolidated sector accounts)
Figure 11: Liability structure of NFCs (outstanding amounts)

Source: Eurostat (national account statistics, consolidated sector accounts)

Figure 12: Debt structure of NFCs (outstanding amounts in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (national account statistics, consolidated sector accounts)
Figure 13: Loans from euro area monetary financial institutions to NFCs (in EUR bn)

Source: ECB
9. SPAIN

Figure 3: Domestic Savings versus foreign funding (four-quarter cumulated flows in EUR bn)

Source: Own calculations based on Eurostat’s national account statistics

Figure 5: Domestic savings of households, corporations and government (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (European sector account statistics)
Figure 6: Net foreign capital transactions (four-quarter cumulated flows in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (balance of payments statistics)

Figure 8: Gross inward and outward foreign capital transactions (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (balance of payments statistics)
Figure 9: Investments and savings by non-financial corporations (in EUR bn)

Source: Own calculations based on Eurostat’s sector account statistics

Figure 10: Loan, securities and equity transactions of NFCs (in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (consolidated sector accounts)
Figure 11: Liability structure of NFCs (outstanding amounts)

Source: Eurostat (national account statistics, consolidated sector accounts)

Figure 12: Debt structure of NFCs (outstanding amounts in EUR bn)

Source: Eurostat (national account statistics, consolidated sector accounts)
Figure 13: Loans from euro area monetary financial institutions to NFCs (in EUR bn)

Source: ECB