3. Composition

Membership

- 3.1. The Committee shall be composed of nine (9) members of the Board of Directors, appointed by the Board of Directors on a proposal by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, with one per Member State or group of Member States that nominate alternate Directors as specified under Article 9(2) of the Statute. Members willing to resign from the Committee shall promptly notify the Secretary General of their resignation and of the date on which that resignation is to take effect.

Chairmanship

- 3.5. As a Committee of the Board of Directors, the chairmanship shall be on the same basis as for the Board itself (i.e., as laid down in Article 9(2) of the Statute and in Article 11.3 of the Bank's Rules of procedure) and hence it shall be chaired by the EIB President, who may delegate the chairmanship to a Vice-President or a member of the Committee.
- 3.6. The President shall invite a Board expert with enhanced banking qualifications on risks to co-chair meetings of the Risk Policy Committee.

4. Meetings

Notice of meetings

- 4.1. The Chairman of the Committee convenes Committee meetings in writing by any communication means, including electronic means.

- 4.4. Members can request elements to be included on the agenda in writing to the Secretary General no less than five (5) working days before the meeting. For items that are requested at least a calendar month before the meeting, the requesting member or the Chairman may ask that it be accompanied by a report from the EIB services reviewing the specific questions raised.

- 4.5. Meetings can consist of a gathering of all participants in a physical location, or of video or telephone conferences. Meetings may be scheduled on the eve of Board meetings or, when longer discussion and/or preparation time is required for the RPC to issue its opinions and recommendations, separate from the Board of Directors meetings.

Meeting attendance and support

- 4.6. The member of the Management Committee charged with the oversight of Risk Management and the Director General of the Risk Management Directorate attend every meeting of the RPC and answer the questions of the members of the RPC. Members of the Management Committee may attend RPC meetings as well as the Directors General in charge of Finances and operational activities. EIB Group staff may attend RPC meetings, upon request to the Secretary General.
- 4.7. The Secretary General of the Bank shall attend each meeting of the Committee and, in accordance with Art. 11.3 of the Rules of Procedure of the EIB, shall provide secretarial services for the Committee. The Secretary General may delegate this task to another staff member under his/her direct responsibility.
- 4.8. In the interests of preserving confidentiality, the Chairman can decide that attendance is strictly restricted to the Chairman and the members of the Committee. However, if the restricted attendance is not explicitly planned, other Board members who are not members or alternates of the Committee are entitled to attend the meetings of the Committee as observers. Subject to the abovementioned conditions, a listening room may be set up, when available, to enable Board members' desk officers to follow the Committee meeting and take notes of discussions, provided that desk officers are subject to an equivalent duty of confidentiality than Board members.
- 4.9. The RPC can invite the Audit Committee to meet to discuss relevant topics and the terms of the meetings shall be agreed between the two committees.
- 4.10. The RPC can extend an invitation to hold joint sessions with the Committee on Equity Participation Policy when appropriate papers for discussion are tabled or with other Committees of the Board of Directors, as deemed necessary.

Committee's Opinions

- 4.11. The Secretariat is responsible for the preparation of opinions and recommendations in relation to issues discussed by the Committee, as submitted by the Management Committee and for the submissions of these opinions and recommendations to the Board of Directors on behalf of the Committee.
- 4.12. In addition, Committee members can table opinions to the Committee on issues within the Committee's mandate.
- 4.13. Formal opinions and recommendations of the Committee are reached, where possible, by consensus. In case this would not be possible, any disagreement is recorded in the opinions and recommendations at the request of the Committee members concerned.

Meeting Report

- 4.14. The Board of Directors should be regularly informed of the progress of the Committee. To that end, next to a statement by the President at the Board of Directors, an outcome note will be produced following each Committee meeting.

5. Disclosure and confidentiality

- 5.1. Confidentiality and non-disclosure shall be governed by the relevant provisions of the Code of Conduct of the Board of Directors.
